The ASRC acknowledges Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as the First Peoples and Traditional Custodians of the lands where we live, learn, and work every day. We pay our respects to them, their customs, their culture, and Elders past and present. We recognise that First Nations' sovereignty and lands were never ceded. This land always was and always will be Aboriginal land. As part of our commitment to First Nations justice, we support Treaty for Victoria.

Who are we?

1. NON-GOVERNMENT

We do not take any Federal Government funding.

2. NOT-FOR-PROFIT

We rely on donations from the community to operate and provide services. Any extra profit we make is reinvested into our services.

3. HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANISATION

We are Australia's largest human rights organisation providing support to people seeking asylum.

What do we believe in?

1. FAIRNESS

We are dedicated to supporting the rights of people seeking asylum in Australia.

2. JUSTICE

We work to change unjust Federal Government policies.

3. INCLUSION

We empower the rights of people seeking asylum and campaign alongside the community

Who do we support?

PEOPLE SEEKING ASYLUM

Our services support people who are in the process of seeking asylum in the Australian community. We also provide a support service to people the Australian Government has detained offshore.

WITH THE BIGGEST BARRIERS TO ACCESSING THEIR RIGHTS

While we aim to support as many people as possible, the level of need always exceeds the resources we have as a charity organisation. We therefore prioritise those with the greatest challenges in realising their rights for our services.
